with Betty Allen...

A friend, returning from Germany was assigned to guard a prisoner on board ship—one of our men who had gone A. W. O. L. He was a meek little man, a former singer of hill-billy songs in a Newark, N. J., cafe. Sent overseas he was assigned guard duty his first night ashore and had his feet frozen. He was sent first to one hospital and then to another. This went on for some time and the little man decided he was homesick so he made his way to LeHavre, bribed a fisherman to row him out to a Liberty ship and mingled with the other men on board ship.

During the voyage he assumed tasks and remained inconspicuous. When the ship docked in New York he climbed down a rope and mixed with the other men on the dock who had been checked off the boat. After going through a few formalities with them he went home to his wife and three children in Newark.

Two days later he was picked up by the military police and since he had gone A. W. O. L. from an overseas outfit he was sent back overseas. Back in Europe no record could be found of him. For two months he was kept under guard while officials tried vainly to straighten out his history. Eventually they gave it up as a bad job and ordered him returned to the States. My friend reported him confused and bewildered on the trip home.

Among the exchange papers which made their way to the editor's desk is a favorite, "The Squeak Sheet", a small mimeographed paper put out by a WAC lieutenant friend, Elizabeth Stypes, all during the war for her overseas friends. Her paper, full of gossip, news of mutual friends and humor, had a large circulation among all branches of the service. "The Squeak Sheet" has just merged with another paper of similar type, "Crums from Chris" and hence will be known as "The Crummy Squeak" or "The Squeaky Crumb". The new editorial policy is stated in the first issue under the merger and it seems so restful in these days of large issues:

POLICY OF THE PAPER

Non-partisan, non-political, non-particular, non-plussed, non-essential, nonsensical, non-volatile, nondescript, nonpareil, and non-chalant. Ten words giving a brief summary of the policies of this paper. At all times it will be the course of this rag to treat all news, international, national, shun and nil, with the same care-free procedures.

Ever Since Eve To Be Senior Play

The senior play, selected by the class cabinet last week, is to be "Ever Since Eve". It is a comedy in three acts and sounds very promising. It concerns a group of young journalists whose lives are all upset by the entrance of a little southern beauty who writes poetry. It's full of laughs and will be presented very well, no doubt, due to the number of excellent comedians in the senior class. Try-outs were held this week; the cast will be announced soon. There are five lead parts for the girls and six for the boys. "Ever Since Eve", if all goes well, will be presented March 1.

Engagement Announced

At a luncheon given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Erickson, San Jose-Los Gatos Road, Miss Kathryn Kennedy announced her engagement to Ray L. Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray F. Mathis, Campbell. The bride-to-be, who is a senior at Stanford University, has presented the traditional box of candy to her Casa roommates at Lagunita Court on the campus, and, in keeping with a Casa custom, a silver vase containing red roses, was placed in the lobby.

The future bridegroom has just returned from two years' duty overseas with the Navy and wedding plans will be made when he is discharged from the service.

President's Relief Board Bars All Clothing Appeals Except Victory Collection

Relief agencies registered with the President's War Relief Control Board, of which Joseph E. Davies is chairman, have been enjoined by the board from initiating or carrying out any national or local campaign to collect clothing for overseas relief until Feb. 15 except in collaboration with and for the benefit of the Victory Clothing Collection. The Victory Clothing Collection is being conducted in behalf of UNRRA.

Many of these relief agencies, among them the Greek War Relief, American Relief for France, United Yugoslav Relief Fund of America, American Committee of Yugoslav Relief and American Friends of Czechoslovakia, have already signified their intention to set aside a day on which they will hold ceremonies and make appeals for the Victory Clothing Collection.

The President's War Relief

Control Board has urged full support of this second nationwide effort to alleviate the sufferings of the victims of the war in Europe, China and the Philippines. The American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Relief also endorse the drive and urged all-out support by its 53 member agencies. Henry Kaiser is national chairman of the Victory Clothing Collection as he was of the United National Clothing Collection of last April which helped clothe 25,000,000 destitute in war-destroyed lands. The goal is 100,000,000 garments, in addition to shoes and bedding.

The War Relief Control Board was set up by an Executive Order to authorize and regulate the collection by voluntary agencies of funds and goods for overseas relief.

The Campbell Kiwanis Club is in charge of the drive here and clothes may be left at the Water Company office.

Mail Romance Leads To Altar

On Sunday, Jan. 13, in San Francisco, a mail romance was culminated in marriage when the former T/Sgt. H. E. Jessup of San Francisco took as his bride the girl who had corresponded with him for over 14 months, Helen Wigney of Campbell.

Their letter writing started when Sergeant Jessup grew tired of seeing his buddy in New Caledonia doing the lion's share of letter writing in their tent. On the sergeant's insistence his friend gave him his niece's address in California. Letter followed letter day after day and in six months' time a romance had developed; now Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jessup are honeymooning in Santa Cruz.

At her wedding the bride wore a white wedding gown with Juliette veil and carried white carnations. She was given in marriage by her father, Theodore M. Bohn of Campbell. Juanita White, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid, and Albert White was best man.

Following the ceremony the Albert Whites entertained in the rumpus room of their San Francisco home. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jessup, Adele, Eeverly and Bob Treadway, Dorothy, Richard and Mr. and Mrs. Albert White and Sgt. Ray, all of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bohn, Teddy, Darlene, Billy, and Lillian Bohn and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Diaz, all of Campbell.

After their wedding trip to Santa Cruz and Los Angeles, the newlyweds will make their home in San Francisco.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore M. Bohn, Hazel Ave., attended both grammar and high school in Campbell and was also married here.

Girls' League Elect Officers
At the meeting held January 10, three very competent junior girls were chosen to carry on the business of the Girls' League: Kathy Stanton was elected president, with Margaret Currie as vice-president, and Raeline Steindorf as secretary.

After elections were over, the girls were entertained by Regina Silva and Mary Monroe singing "Rag Time Cowboy Joe" and the movie "The Building of the Stillwell Road", presented to the league through the courtesy of the Hall Macs Studio.

John P. Flatken Home
John P. Flatken, who is serving in the Merchant Marine, is in Campbell for a few days after a trip to the Philippine Islands. He is at his home, 10 S. Third St., with his wife, Thelma, and two daughters, Bernell and Mirna Lee.

Small Towns Against Training

The smaller towns and rural communities of the United States were found to be less favorable to peacetime compulsory military training than the people in cities, according to a survey of weekly newspaper editors made by Western Newspaper Union's news analyst. The editors of over 500 small town newspapers, of the 3000 using WNU printed syndicate service, were polled.

Fifty-seven percent of the editors polled favored peacetime military training, with 57.7 percent of those approving also in favor of President Truman's proposal for one year of service for 18 to 20-year-old males. Other national polls, which have included surveys in cities, show that approximately 70 percent of the American people are in favor of some kind of peacetime military training.

With every section of the country heard from, Southern editors showed the greatest support for military training, with 66.6 percent for it, 22.2 opposed, and 11.2 undecided.

Western editors gave peacetime training the least support, with 50 percent for it, 37.5 opposed and 12.5 undecided. North and North-Central editors favored by 59.7 percent, with 39.3 opposed, and one percent undecided. Eastern and New England editors were 57.6 for peacetime training, 42.3 opposed, and only a fraction of one percent undecided.

Red Cross To Have Open House

Next Sunday open house will be held by the San Jose chapter of the American Red Cross at its new home, 440 N. First St., with visiting hours set from 3 to 7 p. m. This property was purchased a few months ago to give the Red Cross a permanent home for its continued services to the veterans, the servicemen and their families.

Ethan Lanphear, Campbell, painted the sign which marks the new quarters, and Mrs. Archie Keesling, Campbell chairman, hopes that a large group of interested residents will attend and participate in the open house.

Guests will be shown through the production rooms, the workrooms where arts and skills members prepare their looms, leather goods, etc., for work in nearby hospitals, the Home Service department that provides financial aid and counseling service for veterans and men in uniform, the Motor Corps equipment that travels thousands of miles on errands of mercy.

Country Women Hear Radar Talk

Members of the Country Woman's Club met for their regular meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. Carl Field presiding. The meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance and singing of "America" led by Mrs. Ira Grim with Mrs. David Sanders at the piano. Members stood in a moment of silence in respect to the late Mrs. M. A. Ross, one of the club's oldest members.

The U. S. O. committee reported the serving of sandwiches on the club's regular serving day. Mrs. Anthony Jurras, chairman, was assisted in the making of sandwiches by Mesdames Ray B. Bishop, Georgene Kidward, H. G. Brash, Ira H. Grim and David W. Ribble; those serving at the U. S. O. Hut were Mesdames J. W. Forward, David A. Sanders, H. F. Evans, A. D. Rice, H. J. Smith, R. M. Magnuson, Carl D. Field, Guy E. Farley and Mrs. Nellie Ruth-erford.

Mrs. A. D. Rice, chairman of the day, presented Lt. (j. g.) E. B. Bonewitz as guest speaker, who gave a very interesting and instructive talk on radar. Musical numbers were featured by grammar school students, a piano solo by Miss Lorraine Wood, a cello solo by Miss Joyce D'Avia, a saxophone solo by Miss Virginia Grattin, and a clarinet duet by Miss Gayle Schrader and Miss Barbara Ehrsam.

During the meeting Red Cross work was distributed by the Red Cross chairman. The club will celebrate its 41st anniversary at its next meeting.

The committee arranging the program for the day were Mesdames A. D. Rice, Lowell J. Benson, John D. Blaine, Herbert M. Shadle, and David A. Sanders.

March of Dimes Drive

The March of Dimes drive for infantile paralysis is on! With thousands of civic-minded men and women volunteering their time to raise the funds, drive officials are looking forward to the most successful appeal in history.

In urging all citizens to respond generously to the campaign, Joseph M. Schenck, state chairman, said:

"Never has it been more important to give generously. Epidemics of infantile paralysis struck in many areas of our state last year, and it is impossible to estimate what will happen during the coming year. We must be prepared for any contingency."

More than a thousand cases of infantile paralysis were reported in the state during 1946. According to Dan Marovich, Northern California director, all cases brought to the attention of the National Foundation were promptly taken care of and every patient had the benefit of the latest medical techniques in their fight back to health.

Polio is one of the most expensive diseases known to modern medicine. In supporting the March of Dimes, citizens have the pledge of the National Foundation to care for every case of polio without regard to race, creed or color.

Robert W. Kenny, attorney general, is heading up the Northern California division in the campaign. Geo. W. Baker Jr., is serving as vice-chairman; Parker S. Maddux, treasurer; James G. Smyth, chairman of federal agencies; and Harold A. Berliner, secretary, federal agencies.

Half of the money to be raised will remain in the individual counties to aid victims of infantile paralysis. The remaining half will be sent to the National Foundation for continuation of research aimed at eliminating the disease as America's worst enemy of children.

In Campbell, Jack Murdock is serving as chairman, and has distributed the familiar March of Dimes boxes around town. Contributions may be sent or brought to him at the Water Co. office.

Gift Made To Stamp Club

Another evidence of the artistic ability of "Butch" Claude Pritchett was demonstrated last week when the San Jose Stamp Club met at the Sainte Claire Hotel for its regular meeting.

Opening rap of the gavel was made by Dave Ribble, who heads the group for the year. Said gavel was a carefully hand-carved replica of the first postage stamp ever used; the well-known Penny Black, issued in England in 1842. This one stamp is more sought after than probably any issued by any country since. It marks the opening of a new era—that of affixing adhesives to communications rather than a pen scratch of the postmaster to show prepayment of postage.

Mr. Pritchett's gift to the stamp club was a beautiful black-and-white carving, inlaid on the face of the wooden mallet. It drew much favorable comment from the fifty-odd stamp enthusiasts, who expressed their appreciation to the donor. The gavel may be seen at The Press office where other specimens of his handiwork have been displayed.

Board Rescinds Action

The County Board of Supervisors has rescinded its decision of Nov. 19 to have the County Planning Commission re-hear the matter of rezoning the area just north of Campbell which was requested by two petitioners in the commercial chicken business. Since a petition signed by 221 residents of the area was brought in it has been decided by the board to leave the zoning in its present "status quo".

EDITORIAL

A recent accident at Brookside Ave. and Steven's Creek Road in which two Campbell Grammar school boys were struck as they alighted from the school bus seems to call for a little stress upon a driving regulation which does not appear to be well known.

This law is one which calls for the stopping of any vehicle when a school bus stops. This is applicable if the bus is coming toward the vehicle or traveling in the same direction.

One of the Campbell boys who was struck was not injured but the other received a broken leg. It is to be hoped that we do not have to have a worse accident to bring home to all of us that this is a law which must be observed.

The school bus drivers are conscientious and diligent in guarding the safety of our children, but they cannot do it unless all of the community drivers cooperate with them in abiding by all rules and regulations.

UNDER THE DOME

WASHINGTON. — Busy Tom Corcoran, the ex-braintruster, has been promoting his law partner, ex-Senator D. Worth Clark of Idaho, to replace Harold Ickes when and if the latter resigns as Secretary of the Interior. Clark, a former die-hard isolationist, is not likely to get the job. . . . An off-the-record quote from President Truman: "A lot of people used to accuse President Roosevelt of being a liar—especially on Capitol Hill. But having been in this job for a few months myself, it's hard to know how anyone could be President of the United States without occasionally being a liar." . . . Boss of the Bronx Ed Flynn, close friend of FDR and former Democratic chairman, is in for tough political sledding. Hard-hitting Congressman James Roe, leader of Queens County, who spearheaded Mayor LaGuardia's victory, is out to replace Flynn as Democratic national committeeman from New York. . . . Ed Flynn, always more interested in the coveted field of diplomacy, plans to leave for Moscow this winter to try patching up relations between Kremlin and the Vatican. . . . Some Senators who backed Cordell Hull in ousting Sumner Welles, have now become strong Wellesian rooters since his masterful testimony before the Pearl Harbor committee. . . . The demagogue business must be picking up. . . . Gerald Winrow, race-baiting editor of "The Defender" and under indictment for sedition, has moved from a modest dwelling on North Green Street to a pretentious home on Broadway Street, the exclusive section of Wichita, Kans.

SOL BLOOM SLIPS

Congressman Sol Bloom of New York, who imported the "Salome dance" from Egypt to the Chicago World's fair many years ago, nearly got away with a fast one during a secret session of the House rules committee called to consider the UNRRA appropriation bill. Bloom, who is chairman of the House foreign affairs committee, attended the rules committee meeting as its guest. He was not supposed to vote. Congressman Charles Eaton of New Jersey, ranking minority member of the foreign affairs committee, also was a guest and supported UNRRA generally. However, he began to tell the rules committee of his strong conviction that a "freedom of the press" amendment should be included in the bill.

Anxious to avoid more argument over this, Blom, though not a member of the rules committee, shouted, "I move the previous question!"

Rules Committee Chairman Adolph Sabath of Illinois banged his gavel and remarked, "The question is called."

Members of the rules committee then prepared to vote.

Not so Representative Clarence Brown, Ohio Republican. Turning to Blom, Brown asked:

"Sol, how long have you been a member of the rules committee?"

Blom flushed, while other members of the rules committee grinned sheepishly, realizing they had been taken in.

"I just thought if I could get away with it, I would," Bloom replied. He did get a rule to put the UNRRA appropriation before the House, but not without a good deal more discussion.

Students Receive Poetry Awards

In the recent copy of the California Anthology of High School Poetry, two poems submitted from Campbell High were published. They were Sylvia Thompson's "The Oak Tree", and Mary Lynne Thompson's "Dreams of Youth", which received honorable mention. The poems winning the honors are published below.

THE OAK TREE

At dusk I share this old
Oak tree with God
Who planted it here long ago
Within the sod
And watched it as it grew from one
Small acorn cup
Into a tree to which the whole
Wide world looks up.
—Sylvia Thompson.

DREAMS OF YOUTH

Ah, how sweet are the dreams of youth,
Whose thoughts of bringing valor and truth
To the world are shared by one and all.
But now very few do answer the call.
How few have courage enough to throw
Civilizations rules away, and go
To live the life we all desire,
Scorning conventions, and braving the fire
Of disapproval and resulting fame.
But youth will always revere the name
Of he who does, and hold him up
As one who drained life's brimming cup.
—Mary Lynne Thompson.

A. A. U. W. Day

Next Saturday, Jan. 26, is A. A. U. W. Day at the Reinhardt lecture series being given each Saturday in the Little Theater at San Jose State College under the auspices of the San Jose Garden Forum.

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, world traveler and lecturer, former president of Mills College, served for several years as president of the Association of University Women. Saturday's topic will concern itself with "France and Foreign Policy"; of the widening of France's European territory to include colonies on the continents of Africa and Asia. The lecture series on world affairs which began on Saturday, Jan. 5, will continue each Saturday until March 9, inclusive. Tickets may be secured at the Sherman and Clay and Ferguson music stores and at the YWCA in San Jose.

Miss Pauline Lynch, president of the San Jose A. A. U. W., will introduce Dr. Reinhardt on Saturday. Bishop L. C. Sanford will offer the invocation, and Mrs. Bertha M. Rice will preside.

Drive to Monterey

Mr. and Mrs. Add Hall, accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Mears and Mrs. Flo Wetzel, drove to Monterey Sunday to attend services at the Church of Christ, the first to be held in the church's new edifice there.

the U. S. ship named for him has been forced to carry a cargo of sick Japanese from Pacific islands to the Japanese mainland. Nearly all the patients had communicable diseases, and two of the 60 tuberculosis patients died during the voyage. Most controversial subject that has hit the Truman cabinet in weeks is the Moscow agreement.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Maury Maverick, who had the smaller War Plants corporation knocked out from under him while he was in the Far East, reports that General MacArthur is doing an A-1 job in Japan. . . . If the Russians want to make a hit with G. I. Joes, they could loosen up their absurd policy of not permitting Korean coal from the Russian zone to be shipped to the American zone a few miles south. As a result, ships which might be used for hauling G. I.s, now carry coal to Korea.

YOUR HOME HAS MANY ELECTRICAL SERVANTS—GIVE THEM FULL POWER

When the electric wiring is carefully planned for your home, you can plug-in all your clocks and radios and lamps and appliances to outlets conveniently placed. Circuits and wire size are ample to prevent dipping of lights or voltage drop. An Adequate Wiring job is one of the lowest cost items in any home and should not be neglected.

WIRE AHEAD FOR BETTER LIVING—ELECTRICALLY

If you were to assemble all the electric servants you now employ in your home, it would make quite a large crew. You have acquired them from year to year and they have helped you run your home with modern convenience and comfort. Soon now, you will be buying and using many new and needed electrical appliances. Can you connect them up to your present wiring system? Will you have to resort to double and triple plugs or long make-shift cords? And most important, will all these appliances receive full voltage? Plan ahead in 1946 for better living, electrically. Modernize your present home with Adequate Wiring. And for the new home you may be planning to build, check wiring specifications room by room to make certain nothing has been skimped or omitted.

Adequate Wiring means just this....

1. Plenty of plug-in outlets.
2. Plenty of light switches, properly placed.
3. Plenty of circuits of large enough wire (at least number 12 size) to deliver full electric power now and many years from now.

Roses constructed of funny papers made up the matron's bouquet. The tables were decorated with newspaper place mats and nut cups. The guests wore newspaper hats. Games were played for one of which the prize was a year's subscription to The Campbell Press. Old fashioned dancing was enjoyed by all.

Army Information At Postoffice

Beginning last Tuesday an army recruiting officer is on duty in the Campbell Post Office on Tuesday afternoons to give information regarding recruiting activities.

Uncle Sam's cry for a strong and large professional army has become even more urgent during the past ten days with American soldiers throughout the world clamoring to return home for speedy discharge. As a result, Maj. S. R. Lauler, head of the local army recruiting station at Postoffice Building, San Jose, said today that the recruiting campaign would be intensified to greater proportions so that America's overseas needs can be met through voluntary enlistments.

Although enlistments in this area, and in fact throughout the ranks of the entire army have been highly successful to date, thousands upon thousands of recruits are needed to replace the homesick and demanding G. I.'s. Approximately 500,000 men have been enlisted in the new professional army during the past five months. But over 1,000,000 additional soldiers must be procured during the next six months to meet the demands of national security and to relieve veterans with long arduous war service.

That the army is offering young men, 17 to 34, opportunities and benefits never before realized by a professional soldier anywhere, is ample proof that Uncle Sam is granting the highest type of career and security possible. Weekly starting salaries equal to $40 with excellent chances of advancement and amazing opportunities to learn a highly specialized trade, are among the other outstanding highlights of the new regular army.

The local army recruiting officer also stressed the fact that veterans discharged within the past 20 days may re-enlist in the new regular army and retain their former rank, provided they re-enlist by Jan. 31.

Economics Class Visits San Francisco

The members of the Economics class enjoyed a field trip to San Francisco under the direction of Mr. C. P. Klassen on January 9.

They visited the Bureau of Customs where they saw how imports are inspected. The second place they visited was the Federal Reserve Bank where the members of the class had the chance to see millions of dollars on the shelves. The Stock Exchange, the third place seen, was just winding up th day's work and everyone was hustling about.

The class herewith expresses its appreciation to Mrs. Alice Freitas, Mr. R. B. Bishop and Mr. James Dent who gave so generously of their time and also of their automobiles to assist in taking the class to San Francisco.

The trip proved to be quite educational as well as interesting; everyone enjoyed it immensely.

Those who follow their movie news will need no introduction to "Weekend at the Waldorf" coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Campbell Theater for the combined followings of the top quartet in this all-star, modernized and Americanized edition of "Grand Hotel" include just about everybody who goes to picture shows.

Like its antecedent, this film tells several stories inside the master narrative about life in a metropolitan hostelry, balancing each against the other with nicety of judgment, but this version is as much better as the cinema of today is better than that of 1932.

Two love stories make the principal claim upon interest, and either of them would have sufficed independently for a Grade-A attraction. They are presented here on even terms. In one, Ginger Rogers and Walter Pidgeon, as actress and war correspondent, meet under unique circumstances and work out their romantic equation largely in humorous terms.

In the other story Lana Turner and Van Johnson meet under equally novel circumstances and work out their romance in terms of complete and sometimes touching seriousness.

In a third story Edward Arnold attempts to bilk a visiting potentate in an oil swindle and in still another Phyllis Thaxter finally weds the right man.

Shuttling between these stories, Robert Benchley and Keenan Wynn supply spot humor which sparks the proceedings at appropriate intervals. An extremely useful extra factor is Xavier Cugat who plays not only his violin but also a part.

The Book Mark

by vivian

"The King's General" by Daphne Du Maurier... The author of "Rebecca" and "Frenchman's Creek" has coupled the suspense of the first novel with a love story flavored the same as the latter. Neither of the two are topped with this latest, but there is equally good reading to find in "The King's General".

Background for the story is the war between Parliament and Charles I. Main interest is the love story of the King's General and Honor.

Shortly before the marriage of Honor and Richard Grenville she was horribly crippled while riding. Richard Grenville was too much the egotist to keep a sincere love for a crippled wife. Honor being aware of this refused to continue plans for marriage.

Her long months of suffering brought about a strength of mind which attracted all members of the family for counsel. Honor soon was in the position of having all wishes granted. This stood her in good stead as many times during her life Richard demanded her to come to him. Seventeenth century allowed none of this, but a strong virtuous woman was able to overcome all criticism.

By denying Richard the marriage he desired Honor was able to mold, to some extent, his life. She held his love through the years.

The entire story is in retrospect as remembered by the crippled woman whose life was so full while being so empty.
